Northern Ireland – the happiest place in the British Isles!

- 1 In 2015 the inhabitants of the British Isles answered questions about their lives. They also said how happy they were. The results showed that the inhabitants of Northern Ireland were happier than anywhere else in the UK and Ireland. Many people were surprised. The Troubles in Northern Ireland were a problem for many years. The country was poor; a lot of people didn't have a job and over 3,000 people died in the Troubles. "A lot changed after the end of the Troubles. People are happy that they survived," a woman said. "There have always been lots of problems in Ireland, so when people have enough to eat and are healthy, they are happy." A young man said, "Why shouldn't we be happy? It's a great place to live. We have beautiful countryside – the sea and mountains – a lot to do and great people!"

Dear Tom,
I'm so fed up. My mum says I can't go on holiday with you all. What can I do? I want to go camping with you! My mum thinks we're too young. She knows that we will be near your aunt's house. We'll have our bikes with us too. She says the roads are too dangerous and we could have an accident. Please help!
See you, Harry.

Dear Harry,

That's bad news, but don't give up! If I were you, I'd talk to your dad. I'm sure he wouldn't worry about you so much. Maybe he could talk to your mum. Be positive and wait to hear from me.

See you soon, Tom
