Hang out with the penguins

There aren't many places in the world where you can get near to penguins and even swim with them. But you can at Boulders Beach, just 45 minutes away from Cape Town. The penguin colony at Boulders Beach is one of only a few in the world, and it has become very famous and popular tourist destination. You can sit on the beach with the penguins or swim with them. You might even have to share your beach towel with one of them, but you should not touch or feed them. You can also see whales, sharks or dolphins in the bay. Boulders Beach is part of the Table Mountain National Park, where you can go hiking, take a cable car trip to the top of the mountain or visit an old silver mine.

Ziel 5: Ich kann Informationen über Sprachen in Südafrika weitergeben.

Die Sprachen Südafrikas

Südafrika wurde ca. 2200 v. Chr. zum ersten Mal von Menschen verschiedener Stämme besiedelt und vor ungefähr 2000 Jahren ließen sich die ersten schwarzen Nguni-Stämme an der Südspitze Afrikas nieder.

1652 richtete der Niederländer Jan van Riebeeck die erste Versorgungsstation für Schiffe auf dem Kap der Guten Hoffnung und brachte die holländische Sprache nach Südafrika. Aus ihr entwickelte sich das Afrikaans. Mit der Zeit siedelten sich Menschen aus verschiedenen Ländern rund um das Kap an, aus Portugal, Holland, Großbritannien und Deutschland. Sie importierten Sklaven aus Ostafrika, die ebenfalls ihre eigenen Sprachen mitbrachten. Als Südafrika 1902 zur britischen Kolonie wurde, wurde Englisch zur meist genutzten Sprache in den Medien und in der Politik. Die meisten Südafrikaner verstehen Englisch, obwohl nur ca. 9,6% Englisch als Erstsprache sprechen. Die meisten Einwohner Südafrikas sprechen isiZulu (22,7%), isiXhosa (16%) oder Afrikaans (13,5%) Heute gibt es Zeitungen, Radiosendungen und Fernsehprogramme in allen 11 offiziellen Sprachen des Landes.

You have found this information about the languages of South Africa in a history book. You would like to use this text for a presentation in your English lesson. Write the most important information in English. (Lösungsvorschlag)

Many people have settled in South Africa over the centuries. African tribes came about 2,200 years ago. People from Holland, Portugal, Great Britain and Germany settled there later. They brought slaves from East Africa. In 1902 South Africa became a British colony so English became the most important language. Most South Africans speak other languages too, for example isiZulu, isiXhosa or Afrikaans. There are newspapers, and radio and TV programmes in all eleven official languages.
