Interviewer:	Hi Dolores! You're an immigrant from Mexico. Tell us more about that.
Dolores:	Hi! Yes, I was born in Mexico in 1999. I emigrated to the US with my parents and my two brothers in 2007.
Interviewer:	Why did your family leave Mexico?
Dolores:	We left Mexico because we were very poor. My dad did not have a job and my mom sold fruit and vegetables at the local market. My dad had a cousin with a company in the US. My dad got a job at his cousin's company so we moved to the US.
Interviewer:	Did you like your new life in America?
Dolores:	No, at first I felt very lonely. I didn't have any friends. My English wasn't very good so I was afraid to talk to the other girls at school.
Interviewer:	So what did you do?
Dolores:	I started to help at an animal rescue shelter after school and there I met Allyson, who is now my best friend. She helped me a lot. Today I'm really happy to be here in the US because there are so many opportunities.
