A Scottish band

1 Marie Stuart has lived in the Scottish countryside near Aberdeen all her life. She plays the bagpipes. Forty years ago Marie's father started a band and today there are about thirty people in it. The band plays Scottish music. Marie and the other people in the band all wear kilts and jackets and play together every week. Their music is very loud so it's a good thing the neighbours live a few miles away. The band plays at concerts, weddings and parties. They have won many prizes and they have even met the Queen!
