Northern Ireland – the happiest place in the British Isles!

1 In 2015 the inhabitants of the British Isles answered questions about their lives and how happy they were. The results showed that the inhabitants of Northern Ireland were happier than anywhere else in the UK and Ireland. Why was that? Many people were surprised. The 10 Troubles in Northern Ireland were a problem for many years. The country was poor; lots of people didn't have a job and over 3,000 people died in the Troubles.

15 "A lot has changed after the end of the Troubles. People are happy that they survived," a woman said. "There have always been lots of problems in Ireland, so when people have enough to eat and are healthy, they are happy." A young man said, "Why shouldn't we be happy? It's a great place to live. We have beautiful countryside – the sea and mountains – lots to do and great people!"

E-MAIL

Dear Tom,
I'm so fed up. My mum says that I can't go with you all on holiday. She says I have to go with them to Ireland. They're going to travel around and stay in B&Bs. It will be so boring!! What can I do? I want to go camping with you! My mum says we're too young. She knows that we won't be far from your aunt's house, and that we'll have our bikes with us. She says that the roads are too dangerous in Devon and we could have an accident. Please help.
See you, Harry.

Dear Harry,

That's bad news, but don't give up! If I were you, I'd talk to your dad. I'm sure he won't worry about you so much. Maybe he could talk to your mum. I'll call my aunt. If she spoke to your parents, they'd be happier about it too. Be positive and wait to hear from me. See you soon, Tom
