- Interviewer: Hi Dolores! You're an immigrant from Mexico. Tell us more about that.
- Dolores: Hi! Yes, I was born in Mexico in 1999. I emigrated to the US with my parents and my two brothers in 2007.
- Interviewer: Why did your family leave Mexico?
- Dolores: We were very poor because my dad couldn't find a job. My mom sold fruit and vegetables at the local market but she didn't get a lot of money for it. My dad had a cousin who had his own company in the US. He gave him a job and so we moved to the US.
- Interviewer: Did you like your new life in America?
- Dolores: No, at first I felt very lonely. There weren't any girls of my age where we lived. And my English wasn't very good, so I was afraid to talk to the other girls at school.
- Interviewer: So what did you do?
- Dolores: I started to help at an animal shelter after school. There I met Allyson, who is my best friend now. She helped me a lot. Today I'm really happy to be here in the US because there are so many opportunities.
