A Scottish band

Marie Stuart has lived in the Scottish countryside near Aberdeen all her life. She plays the bagpipes. Forty years ago Marie's father started a band and today there are about thirty people in it. The band plays Scottish music. Marie and the other people in the band all wear kilts and play together every week. Their music is very loud so it's a good thing the neighbours live a few miles away. The band plays at concerts, weddings and parties. They have already won many prizes.

Answer the questions.

1. What does Marie play? She plays the bagpipes.
2. Who started the band? Marie's father started the band.
3. What do the people in the band wear? They wear kilts.
4. What kind of music does the band play? The band plays Scottish music.
5. How often do they play together? They play together every week.
6. Where does the band play? They play at concerts, weddings and parties.
