

Peer correction: summary

Unit 10, C

The summary ...	Completely done	Partly done	Not done is about 150 words long.
is written in the present tense.
begins with an introductory sentence: text type, title, author's name, source, date of publication and topic of the text.
does not contain your classmate's own thoughts or opinions but is factual and objective.
does not contain direct speech or quotations.
leaves out irrelevant details such as statistics or examples.
is structured chronologically and sentences are linked with connectives.
states the most relevant facts.
presents the author's intention (reporting words).			