Ashraf: Yes, sure, Jay.

Jay: What do you do at weekends? Do you go out on Saturdays?

Ashraf: Yes, I go to the cinema.

Jay: When do you go to the cinema?

Ashraf: I go in the afternoon.

Jay: What do you do on Sundays?

Ashraf: Well, – I sleep a lot!

Jay: Where do you sing? Do you sing at shows?

Ashraf: No, I make CDs.

Jay: What about sport? Do you play football?

Ashraf: Er – no. But I watch football on TV with my friends.

Jay: One more question, please, Ashraf. Do you like animals?

Ashraf: Yes, I love animals. I go to the zoo in my free time.

Mrs Turner: We had a nice group from London here last year too.

Luke: What activities did they do?

Mrs Turner: Oh, they went horse riding and canoeing, just like you.

Holly: Did they go rock climbing too?

Mrs Turner: Well, they wanted to go, but the weather was awful on that day. It was really wet and windy. So they watched our DVD about rock climbing.

Luke: Hm. That was interesting, but not very exciting.

Mrs Turner: We had one very exciting night with that group. One boy didn't come home with them.

Holly: Oh no! What did you do?

Mrs Turner: We all went out with torches. And guess what? Barry saw him, next to the tractor!

Luke: Good old Barry!
