

1 Barker does lots of things!

a) Do you remember how the simple present works?
If you need help, look at the rules on pages 142 & 143 in your book.

b) Now write what Barker often / sometimes / usually / ... does.
Example: Barker never does Lisa's homework.

| never  | sometimes               | usually                      | always                       | often                     |
|--|-------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------|---------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>do Lisa's homework ✓</li> <li>go to school with Lisa</li> </ul> | watch TV in the evening | get some chocolate from Lisa | chase Tiger when he sees him | eat Lisa's exercise books |

2 Sorry, Mrs Smith: That isn't right ...

a) Have a look at the grammar on pages 146 & 147 in your book again..

b) Mrs Smith is the children's Maths teacher at Thomas Tallis. But she doesn't know much about the children in her class! Correct the wrong sentences. Use don't / doesn't.

1. Emma and Nasreen like the same films.

Lisa and Emma don't like the same films.

2. Sam plays the drums.

3. Terry and Sam play cards every Sunday.

4. Lisa's dog Barker gets up at five o'clock in the morning.

5. Jade does Lisa's homework every day.

6. Terry reads magazines in his Maths lessons.

7. Emma and Nasreen take the dog for a walk every day.

8. Every year the Spencers visit their friends in Greece.

3 Tom Tiny's grandma on the phone

a) Take a look at the grammar on page 148.

b) Tom talks to his grandma on the phone. But Grandma Tiny can't understand everything. Ask Mrs Tiny's questions. (to understand = verstehen)

1. Tom: I do many things every day.

Grandma Tiny: What do you do every day, Tom?

2. Tom: My mum writes a list for me every day.

Grandma Tiny: _____

3. Tom: And my teacher gives me homework after the lessons.
