

C Exercise 1 (Track 11)

Jens Schlegel: Baden Versicherung, Jens Schlegel.

Jane Shipley: Good morning. This is Ms Shipley speaking. Do you speak English? Because my German isn't very good.

Jens Schlegel: I'll certainly try, Ms Shipley. How can I help you?

Jane Shipley: I'm calling to find out about private health insurance. I moved to Germany two months ago and am totally confused concerning the German health care system.

Jens Schlegel: I can understand how you feel, but don't worry, I'll be happy to explain it to you.

Jane Shipley: Thanks. That would be splendid.

Jens Schlegel: Why don't you come by our office this week? Would Thursday afternoon suit you?

Jane Shipley: Let me check my schedule. Yes, that's fine with me.

Jens Schlegel: How about 2 pm?

Jane Shipley: Suits me just fine.

Jens Schlegel: Do you know how to get to our office?

Jane Shipley: Yes I do. I live just around the corner.

Jens Schlegel: I'll see you at my office on Thursday at 2 pm.

Jane Shipley: Thanks. See you then.

Jens Schlegel: Goodbye and thank you for calling.
