

Landmarks in British history: The monarchy

Politik

politics	Politik (als politisches Tagesgeschäft)	local politics , interested in politics ( Lokalpolitik, politisch interessiert )
policy politician	Politik (als Programm) Politiker/-in	foreign policy , domestic policy ( Außenpolitik, Innenpolitik ) a left-wing or right-wing politician ( links- oder rechtsgerichtete/-r Politiker/-in )

Regierung

to govern	regieren, die Regierung innehaben	Who might govern this county next?
government	Regierung	GB: the Labour government US: the Bush administration
to rule a rule	herrschen über Regel; Herrschaft	Cromwell ruled Britain. He followed rules . ( Er befolgte Regeln. ) military rule ( Militärherrschaft )
ruler prime minister	Herrsscher Premierminister	A dictator is a ruler with complete power over a country. The prime minister ( Premierminister ) heads the British government.
secretary/minister cabinet	Minister Kabinett	The ministers or secretaries of state are members of his cabinet . The opposition party in parliament forms a shadow cabinet . US: Secretary of State ( Außenminister ); education secretary = secretary for education ( Erziehungsminister ); defence minister or minister of defence ( Verteidigungsminister )

Staats-/Landesoberhaupt

head of state	Staatsoberhaupt	an elected head of state ( gewählts Staatsoberhaupt )
governor	Person an der Spitze eines US-Bundesstaates	governor general (British representative of the Queen as head of state in Australia and Canada)
monarchy	Monarchie	monarch : king, queen, Prince Albert of Monaco (here: Fürst )
to reign	als Monarch herrschen	Queen Victoria reigned from 1837 to 1901.

Parlament

parliament bill	Parlament Gesetzesvorlage	to introduce bills ( Gesetzesvorlagen einbringen ) Parliament passes bills ( verabschiedet Gesetze ), which become law after the Queen signs ( unterzeichnet ) them. The House of Lords ( Oberhaus ) can approve of or reject the bills passed by the House of Commons ( Unterhaus ).
----------------------------------	------------------------------	---

Members of Parliament, MPs	(brit.) Abgeordnete
-----------------------------------	---------------------

Verfassung

constitution	Verfassung	written or codified constitution , constitutional monarchy ( konstitutionelle Monarchie )
article	Paragraph	Article 14 of the European Constitution deals with the economic policies of the member states.

Wahlen

election general election local election to elect/to vote	Wahl Bundeswahl Kommunalwahl wählen	Candidates compete in an election campaign ( Wahlkampf ). They hold an election every four years.  You elect a member of parliament in your constituency ( Wahlkreis ). You vote for one of the candidates ( die Stimme abgeben für ). They counted the ballots in the ballot box .
ballot	Wahlzettel

vote	Wählerstimme	( Wahlurne ). The Labour candidate won by 500 votes ( Stimmen ).
suffrage (right to vote)	Wahlrecht	universal suffrage ( allgemeines Wahlrecht ), female suffrage, votes for women ( Frauenwahlrecht )