Where are the bananas?

1 It's four o'clock. Olivia and Claire are in the kitchen.

Olivia: Can I have a banana please, Claire?

Claire: Yes, there are four bananas on the table. – Oh! Where are they?

Olivia: I don't know.

Now it's 5:30. Olivia can't find her red T-shirt.

Claire: Isn't it in your room?

Olivia: No, it isn't there. Hm. Does Lucy have it? She takes my things ...

But Olivia's T-shirt isn't with Lucy's things.

At six o'clock Olivia sees Lucy in the garden. She has a red T-shirt – Olivia's red T-shirt! Olivia goes into the garden. Lucy puts the red T-shirt on the grass – next to four bananas!

Olivia: What's that, Lucy?

Lucy: It's a home for mice. They can live there. I want mice as pets!

Olivia: But mice don't want T-shirts. They make a home with grass. And they eat nuts, not bananas.

The girls get nuts from the kitchen and Lucy puts the nuts under a tree.

Read the story. Then tick ✓ the right box.

1. There are four bananas in the kitchen.
2. Olivia sees Lucy in the garden at 5:30.
3. Olivia's red T-shirt is in the garden.
4. Mice eat grass and T-shirts.
5. Now mice can eat nuts in Lucy's garden.
