

Party games

Who am I?

1. Player A leaves the room. He or she mustn't see or hear what the others do next.
2. The others choose a famous person or a character from a book or a film. They write the name on a piece of paper.
3. Player A comes back. The others stick the piece of paper on his/her forehead so that only the group can see the name. (Use sticky notes or tape.)
4. Player A asks questions and tries to guess the name. The group can only answer with 'Yes' or 'No'. Player A wins if he/she can find the correct answer after ten questions.
5. It's player B's turn.

Useful phrases

Am I a man / a woman / a character from ... ?
 Am I famous for ... ?
 Am I still alive?
 Am I young / old / funny / ... ?
 Am I German / English / from Augsburg / ... ?
 Do I live in ... ?
 Is my hair colour brown / blond / black / ... ?
 Am I Prince William / Harry Potter / Bibi Blocksberg / ... ?

These games are great fun when you've got lots of players. Try them at your next party!

Simon says ...

1. One person is Simon, the leader. Simon stands in front of the others.
2. Simon tells the others what they must do. For example: "Simon says: Clap your hands!" or "Simon says: Turn around!"
3. The others do what he says - but only if he starts the sentences with the words "Simon says"! If Simon only says "Turn around!" without "Simon says", the others mustn't turn around - or they are out.
4. The game ends when there is only one player left. He / She is the winner.

Useful phrases

Bark like a dog!
 Dance!
 Make a silly face!
 Jump!
 Put up your right foot / your left arm / ...
 Sit down! / Stand up!
 Point to the window / the door / your nose / ...

to be alive [bi:ə'laɪv] am Leben sein blond [blɒnd] blond to stick [stɪk] kleben sticky note [ˌstɪki 'nəʊt] Haftnotiz tape [teɪp] Klebeband leader ['li:də] Leiter/-in