

Don't they like me any more?

What are they saying and thinking? Fill in the speech bubbles and draw a costume for Sherlock.

1. It's Saturday afternoon – Jay's birthday.

No messages from Dave, Luke, Holly or Olivia.

Don't they like me any more?

2. Jay can't hear what his mum is saying on the phone ...

Come to our house at 5 o'clock, OK?

Perfect! Thanks, Dave!

See you later!

OK, great! Luke, Holly
and Olivia can come too.

3. Dave calls Luke ...

We can get into the house
at 5 o'clock!

Great! See you at 5!

4. Olivia and Luke are buying presents, biscuits and sweets.

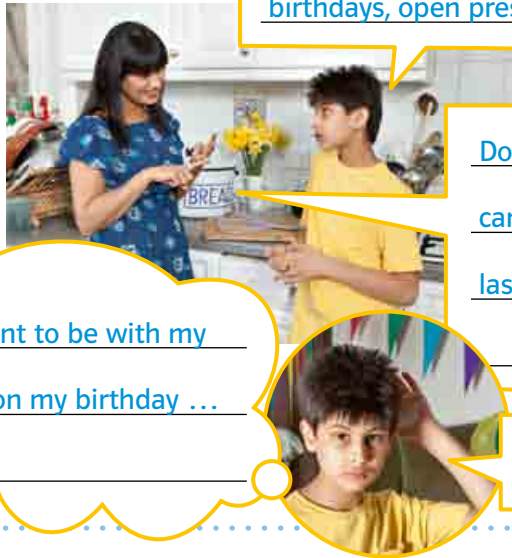

Have we got enough?

We've got enough biscuits.

But we need some decorations too.

5. At the same time ...

Other people see their friends on their birthdays, open presents, play games ...

Don't worry! At Hamid's restaurant you can have carrot pudding and a mango lassi, and then we can go to the cinema.

But I want to be with my friends on my birthday ...

Thanks Mum ...

6. At 5 o'clock, Jay and his parents are in the family car.
Jay's friends get into his house to decorate the living room.

It looks nice.

Yes. Look, I've got a costume for Sherlock!

8. Fifteen minutes later, Jay goes back into the house to get his mum's bag.
All his friends are there!

Surprise!

7. Sherlock looks very funny in his costume!

What...? Wow! I can't believe it!
