

>> Look at the grammar rules on pages 128 and 140 of your book if you need help.

1 Whose is it?

Find the right pronouns for the nouns on the left.

| Long version | Short version |
|---|---|
| Your MP3 player is nicer than mine. | Yours is nicer than mine. |
| My MP3 player is much older. | _____ is much older. |
| Emma's i-pod is much better than Terry's. | _____ is much better than Terry's. |
| Your DVD player is much better than our dvd-player. | Your DVD player is much better than _____. |
| The Millers' DVD player is the best dvd-player in the world. | _____ is the best DVD player in the world. |
| Terry thinks that Sam's skateboard is better than his skateboard. | He thinks that Sam's skateboard is better than _____. |
| Your room is OK, too. | _____ is OK, too. |

2 At lunch

At lunch the kids are talking again. Fill in the gaps.

Terry: My new school bag is OK, but you must see Emma's. _____ is much nicer than _____ . It's perfect!

Lisa: Really ... What do you think of our new car? I don't think it's bad, but look at the Millers' car. _____ is nicer than _____ .

Terry: I like your new car. Have you ever seen our car? _____ is really old and ugly, but have you seen Sam's new skateboard? _____ is much nicer than _____ .

Emma: Your skateboard isn't bad, Terry. Look at Robert's. _____ is worse than yours. And what about Sarah's? I really think _____ is the worst.

Terry: Look, this is Dad's pocket-knife. _____ is better than _____ and mine is much smaller, too.

3 Shopping in town

Emma and Lisa are shopping in town. Put in some or any.

Emma: This is a nice shop. Do you think they've got _____ shoes?

Lisa: Of course. I saw _____ shoes in the shop window. And I saw _____ great T-shirts.
Let's go inside.

Assistant: Hello girls. Do you need _____ help?

Emma: No, thanks we are just looking for _____ things.

Lisa: I need _____ new jeans, but I haven't got much money. Excuse me, have you got _____ cheap jeans?

Assistant: Yes, there are _____ nice jeans over there and they are not expensive.

Emma: Oh, thanks.

Lisa: I think they've got _____ nice things in this shop. We must come back!

4 At the supermarket

You are at home and your friend is at the supermarket. He is calling you to ask what he should buy. Work with a partner and make a dialogue. Use the phrases "Yes, we have got some ..." or "No, we haven't got any ...". You want him to buy the things on the list below which are not crossed out.

| Partner A | Partner B |
|------------------------|--------------------|
| Have we got any bread? | No, we haven't ... |
| ... | |

Lösungen

1

Mine, Hers, ours, Theirs, his, Yours

2

Hers, mine
Theirs, ours
Ours, His, mine
His, hers
His, mine

3

Any, some, some, any/some, some, some, any, some, some

4

Have we got any bread?
- No, we haven't got any.
Have we got any chocolate?
- No, we haven't got any.
Have we got any apples?
- Yes, we've got some.
Have we got any cheese?
- No, we haven't got any.
Have we got any orange juice?
- Yes, we've got some.
Have we got any crisps?
- No, we haven't got any.