Boy: Yes, there's a book shop in town. The name of the street is ... hmm ... Oh, I can tell you how you can get there. Go down Church Street to London Road. The department store is on the left but you turn right into London Road. Walk straight on. You can then see the park. Don't turn into River Road but go straight on. There is the tourist information centre in the centre. Walk straight on, the book shop is on London Road, it's on the left.

Girl: Thanks. I can find that, I'm sure.

Dialogue B:

Chris and Jenny are in the classroom. Jenny has got a great pencil case with cats on it.

Chris: This pencil case is great. Where can I buy* a pencil case like that?

Jenny: In a shop in town, it's The Pen Shop. It has got nice pencil cases.

Chris: Hm ... I don't know it. Where is it?

Jenny: Go down School Street. There's the sports hall on the right. Then cross London Road.

Chris: Isn't there a book shop on the left?

Jenny: Yes, that's right. Then cross Old Street. You can see the cinema on the left. Turn left into New Street. Opposite the cinema is the bus stop. After the bus stop turn right into Brown Street. The Pen Shop is in Brown Street. It's on the right.

Chris: OK, thanks.
