Staying with a host family

You are staying with a host family in Ireland. What can you do to have a good time with your host family?

1. Work with a partner.
2. Write down five tips (or more if you like) for students who are staying with host families.
   Use "must", "mustn't", "should" or "shouldn't".

Here are some ideas:

1. You don't know how to use the remote control[1].	2. Your host brother is taking the rubbish out.	3. At breakfast your host mother is offering you some bread.

ask for help	help with the house work	say (no) thank you

4. You want to use the host father's bike to go to the city centre.	5. Your host sister is very angry and is shouting at you.

(not) borrow / take anything without asking	be / stay friendly

---

Do you plan to go abroad[2] and live with a host family?
Here is some advice for a great time with your host family:

1. You should …. _____

   _____

2. _____

   _____

3. _____

   _____

4. _____

   _____

5. _____

   _____

---

[1]remote control – Fernbedienung, [2]abroad – ins Ausland

Klett

Staying with a host family

You are staying with a host family in Ireland. What can you do to have a good time with your host family?

1. Work with a partner.
2. Write down five tips (or more if you like) for students who are staying with host families.
   Use "must", "mustn't", "should" or "shouldn't".

Here are some ideas:

1. You don't know how to use the remote control[1].	2. Your host brother is taking the rubbish out.	3. At breakfast your host mother is offering you some bread.
ask for help	help with the house work	say (no) thank you

4. You want to use the host father's bike to go to the city centre.	5. Your host sister is very angry and is shouting at you.
(not) borrow / take anything without asking	be / stay friendly

Do you plan to go abroad[2] and live with a host family?
Here is some advice for a great time with your host family:

1. You should ask your host family for help.

2. You must help with the house work.

3. You should say thank you.

4. You mustn't borrow / take anything without asking.

5. You should be / stay friendly.

[1]remote control – Fernbedienung, [2]abroad – ins Ausland